

Brad Abramson has lived in the greater Philadelphia area for more than 15 years. He is married with a second grader, and as a very passionate Zionist, he has been involved in a wide variety of Jewish / Pro-Israel organizations for the last 30 years. He has served in variety of leadership roles, and believes that education is the most essential component in combating modern-day anti-semitism. Brad is very excited to be a founding board member of JEPP, and looks forward to helping to shape the mission and vision of this vital organization.
